The Academic Resource Center (ARC) would like to invite students to our Spring 2015 Study Skills Workshop series from April 7th through June 4th. Attend one of our workshops to:

1) Discover if there are any gaps in how you manage your academics while in college and
2) Fill those gaps with the right college study skills.

WHO CAN ATTEND? Workshops are free of charge for registered UCR students, and we encourage students to attend any and all sessions that may be beneficial to them and their academic success.

HOW DOES IT WORK? Most of our workshops are scheduled on a drop-in basis and are first-come, first serve. We offer each study skill topic multiple times throughout the quarter, providing students with many opportunities to attend.

WHY SHOULD STUDENTS ATTEND? The goal of our workshops is to guide students in becoming active learners. We encourage students to be engaged and welcome them to express any personalized needs with the workshop facilitators.

WHAT ELSE CAN THESE WORKSHOPS OFFER? If you would like to have us present a study skill workshop for your club, organization or department please submit a request via our “Workshop Request Form” located on our website at http://arc.ucr.edu/study_skills.html.

Please visit our website for additional Academic Resource Center programs and services.
